

March 29, 2010

Honda's CBR 125R Challenge not just for kids!

Turple Bro's of Red Deer, Alberta is the latest Honda Powerhouse dealership to support a rider and enter Canada's CBR 125R national series. At the age of 28 and standing 6'2 you can't call their rider typical for this series, but nevertheless, proof that big kids can enjoy this too.

Out of the Alberta Mini Road Racing club, Jacob Snell will be competing on the #777 Turple Bro's Honda in 6 of the 9 rounds (Calgary and Mosport), with hopes to make Shubenacadie as well. Snell's CBR 125R is also supported by Tireco Canada's two auto service centers located in Kitchener & Waterloo, Ontario.

Jacob would like to extend a big thanks to Turple Bro's (www.turplebros.ca), Tireco Canada (www.tirecocanada.com), Honda Canada, and the AMRA (www.amra.ca) .

To learn more about the series visit cdnsuperbike.com and click the CBR 125R Challenge link or call 416-735-9763.